SWOC ANALYSIS 2016-2021

STRENGTH

- Systematic planning of classroom teachings and departmental programmes delivers fruitful management of the Department.
- Field visit enhanced the personality and knowledge of the students.

WEAKNESS

- A thrust in research activities has been restrained since lesser number of teachers are involved in research.
- Weak economic and financial conditions of some of the students limits the procurement of learning aids and materials

OPPORTUNITY

- Through membership in the Eco Club, which is managed by the Department, the students can develop knowledge of environmental awareness and leadership skills.
- History Club activities provided opportunities to students to uncover their potential by developing research and learning aptitude.

CHALLENGE

- Promotion of professional zeal among the students through placement or skill development programme(s).
- Provide effective learning platform(s) and channels for any exigencies of time where all the students would participate without fail
