1.	Name of Seminar	Seminar on Gender Sensitization: Protection of Women under the Laws
	Date	1 st November, 2016
	Place	Central Campus
	Resource Person	Mr. T. Lalnunsiam, Advocate, Selrunpui Legal
	No. of Participants	66 Students from 5 th Semesters
	Organizers	Women Committee, Govt. J Thankima College

Objectives:

- To make the young boys' and girls' gender sensitive and create positive values that supports the girls and their rights.
- To generate the awareness in regard to equality in law, social system and democratic activities.
- To give the knowledge of protection of women under the laws.

Report of the events:

- The Women Committee of Govt. J Thankima College organized a successful seminar. The invited resource person was an expert in his topic.
- The presentation was informative, relevant and important. Students paid attention throughout his presentation.
- The resource person said that there have been numerous laws for the protection of women against the various atrocities faced by their society.
- The main laws in India which have been developed are The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, amendment in the Indian Penal Code, etc. In our society, the foremost reason for the atrocity against women is violence and sexual assault.
- Women are required to be protected from these atrocities and to achieve this government has made an effort to make legislation and impose heavy punishments on the accused.
- It is also necessary that women became aware of the various rights which have been provided to them under the above-mentioned acts. Also, the government in every state should encourage various social groups and NGOs in every district, to extend their support and cooperation for the protection and care of women.
- If we take care of all such measures there can be effective implementation of the laws developed for their protection.
- The resource person also pointed out that domestic violence, harms or injures or endangers the health, safety, life, limb or well-being, whether mental or physical, of the aggrieved person or tends to do so and includes causing physical abuse, sexual abuse, verbal and emotional abuse harasses, harms, injures or endangers the aggrieved person with a view to coerce her or any other person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any dowry or other property or valuable security.

- To encourage female students more stress on education.

Report of events:

- C. Vanlalruati was the Chairperson; Ruth VL was documentation in charge. Mr. Isaac Lalrinsanga Ph. D Scholar also attended this seminar.
- Ms. Maria Lalremruati, Chairman of the Women Committee and Associate Professor at Govt. J Thankima College was invited as the resource person. She is wonderful presenter and very knowledgeable person. She is the Board Member of YWCA, Women Committee Member of Asian Indigenous People Pact (AIPP) Chiangmai Thailand during 2011-2014.
- According to our resource person, women's empowerment can be defined as promoting women's sense of self-worth, their ability to determine their own choices, and their right to influence social change for themselves and others.
- In our society, empowered women contribute to the health and productivity of whole families and communities and improved prospects for the next generation.
- The empowerment and autonomy of women and the improvement of their political, social, economic, and health status is a highly important end in itself.
- There has been immense progress to uplift women financially, politically and socially, but it is still an open-ended process.
- Education is one of the most important means of empowering women with the knowledge, skills and self-confidence necessary to participate fully in the development process empowering a woman today.
- Will lead to a progressive society for tomorrow this silver-lining should be our motivation in annualizing gender equality discussion.

Outcomes:

- This seminar highlighted the importance of education and challenges the participants to be more conscious in their studies.
- Thus, education is one of the most important means of empowering women with knowledge, skills and self-confidence which are necessary to participate fully in the development process.

2.	Name of Seminar	Seminar on role of women in freedom movement

	Place	Central Campus
	Resource Person	Corporal Zama, Examine and Mrs. Lalrinsangi, Ex-MNA
	No. of Participants	57 students and faculty members
	Organizers	Department of Political Science

Objectives:

- To gain first-hand knowledge from women who actually participated in MNF Independence Movement.

Report of event:

- Corporal Zama, Ex. MNA and Mrs. Lalrinsangi, Ex. MNA are invited as the resource persons for this seminar.
- They shared their experience during the wars and the struggles and hardship they had to face to protect their land.
- The students also find these to be very fascinating as it was a part of their syllabus and to hear it from the volunteers in person was a benefit for them.
- Corporal Zama, Ex. MNA had 11 works in 11 publications in 2 languages and 63 library holdings.
- They talked of the role of women in the road and journey to freedom, stressing on the relevance and importance of women in their struggle towards freedom.
- The role of women as medical attendants was also talked of in great length, mentioning them being the need of the hour.
- The resource persons for this seminar were volunteers during the insurgency and each shared their own experience.
- One of the resource people said that women's contribution to the formation of the state remains largely unrecognized.
- There were female volunteers in the MNF movement when the insurgency broke out in 1966. They fought bravely alongside the men and suffered with the men.
- However, there is no written record of the numbers of female volunteers in the movement even though hundreds submitted their names to the MNF movement.
- It has also been observed that eighteen women entered the underground camp in East Pakistan to serve as nurses and office staff and performed various supporting roles; some of them entered the battlefield to fight alongside men.
- The women who were left in the villages also experienced all kinds of exploitations during the armed conflict of the Indian government and the MNF movement.
