Report of the event:

Number of students who attended: 301

Number of teachers who attended: 8

In pursuance of the request of the Deputy Commissioner, Aizawl, an Awareness Campaign on EVM-VVPAT (Electronic Voting Machine – Voters' Verifiable Paper Audit Trail) under SVEEP programme was held at 1:30 PM today at the Central Campus. Students and staff of the Institution attending the Campaign casts their votes using EVM-VVPAT in the mock poll conducted by Maggie Lalmuanpuii, Coordinator, SVEEP and Vanlalduhsaka, the election officials from DC office.

Before the commencement of the mock poll, a brief lecture on the voting process using EVM-VVPAT was delivered by Vanlalduhsaka. While highlighting the purpose of their visit, Vanlalduhsaka said, "SVEEP or Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation is a programme launched by the Election Commission of India to address the deficit of voters in Indian elections. The aim of the programme is to inform and educate people about the importance of voting and to motivate the electorate to vote in elections. Hence, it is the duty of every law-abiding citizen of India to participate in elections to strengthen the foundations of democracy".

In the bid to increase voter turnout in elections, the Election Commission of India (ECI) is hoping to make Indian Democracy more participative through SVEEP. It started out as a small ECI activity before it was even given the name SVEEP. The programme was properly established and given its name in 2010. From 2009 to 2013, the phase covered over 17 General Elections to State Assemblies and even three revisions of the Electoral Roll and has been credited with the dividend of increasing voter turnout.

The objectives of SVEEP are as follows.

- Educating individuals about the importance of voting.
- Increase participation in elections through voter registration and turnout.

Inspired by the UN Environment Day theme 2019, Air pollution, youth of AYUDH Bhilai chapter tried to make a difference on this world environment day by organizing a tree plantation program. Trees were being planted as part of the World Environment Day by the students as well as the teachers in hope of adding value to the eco-system and contribution to the environment. They made their small yet significant contribution towards Mother Nature by each one planting a sapling as a token of love and gratitude towards their mother nature. The primary motive was to create awareness and promote sustainable and safer environment by inculcating love for nature and to encourage the youth to stop blaming others for all the problems but rather to take initiative and to come together as concerned citizen and as one team, and actively work towards a greener and cleaner world.

J. Thankima College and Red Ribbon Club, GJTC has organized Blood Donation Camp at Aizawl Civil Hospital Blood Bank. Sangvuana, Mr. Lalthlamuana and Mr. Gabriel Lalchhandama.

Most of the donors in the study group opined that the motivating factors for the recruitment of more donors were, creation of opportunities to donate and the need to be well-informed about the need of blood. A majority of the donors were willing to be regular donors. The donors showed positive effects like a sense of satisfaction after the donation. In our study, most of the donors were knowledgeable about the blood donation and they had a good attitude towards it; however, they felt comfortable in donating blood once a year. Creating opportunities for blood donations by conducting many blood donation camps may provide a solution for our blood demand.

Motive/Objective:

Planting trees, shrubs and grasses along the road can create a productive asset and can alleviate the negative effects of roads on the local environment. Negative effects include erosion, loss of fertile soils, gully formation that undermines road foundations, heavy dust, and more. In particular, dust lifted by vehicles, especially along unpaved roads, has a direct effect on the health of people and livestock living near the roads and on crop production. Roadside tree planting can make significant improvements to the quality of roads and the environment and can protect key natural resources, especially in regions where vegetation is essential in binding the soil with organic matter that aids in enhanced infiltration and water retention in the soil.

Theme : Anti-Drug Campaign

Topic : Building a meaningful life without drugs

Target / No of participants : All the students of the college /

Resource Person : Mr. Lalmuanzuala, Coordinator, Mizoram Youth Commission, South Mizoram Zone

Objectives :

- 1) To make students aware of the harmful effects of drugs/alcohol abuse.
- 2) To motivate students to volunteer in anti-drug activities and involve themselves in drug prevention programmes.
- 3) To strengthen the existing awareness programme against drugs and alcohol.
- 4) To encourage students to have a meaningful and purposeful life without drugs and alcohol.

Body : Mr. Lalmuanzuala, the resource person for the webinar, gave a talk on the main reasons for drug addiction and ways to overcome it. The main points that he highlighted were as follows :

People take drugs because it gives them (1) A sense of meaning and purpose of life atleast for a short period. (2) Existential freedom and power and escape from reality of life. (3) Altered state of consciousness which is only temporary and ultimately leads to addiction. The Three component models of life's meaning (Reker & Wong)

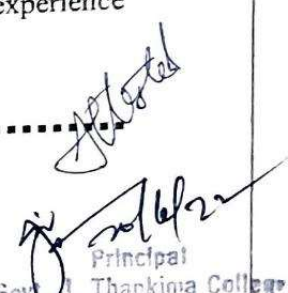

- 1) Cognitive component, which is about making sense of one's experiences in life.
- 2) Motivational component, that is about pursuit and attainment of worthwhile goals.

[Signature]
Principal
Govt. J. Thankima College
Aizawl : Mizoram

3) Affective component, which is about satisfaction and fulfillment. Achievement of goal brings satisfaction and development of positive attitude. Those in addiction cannot develop these components and as a result they cannot have a meaningful and purposeful life and ultimately develop meaninglessness and depression symptomatology. Ways to maintain abstinence and develop a drug-free lifestyle :

- 1) Keep in touch with supportive friends who are also trying to abstain from drugs.
- 2) Develop new hobbies.
- 3) Try having pets like dogs, cats etc.
- 4) Take part in social work.
- 5) Eat at regular meal time.
- 6) Engage in physical activities and sweat out atleast thrice a week.
- 7) Have regular sleep time.

Subject: Request to detail Peer Educators of Red Ribbon Club

Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Mizoram State AIDS Control Society
Mizoram State AIDS Control Society would like to thank you for your active participation and co-operation in fighting HIV/AIDS. Currently, there has been a tremendous increase of HIV among the age group 15-24 years, and without timely intervention, it could have a devastating impact on the youths in the near future. The Red Ribbon Club plays significant role in spreading awareness about HIV among the college students and the Nodal Officers and the Peer Educators need to be aware of the present scenario to steer younger generation in adapting an HIV risk free lifestyle.

So, in order to scale up the activities at the college level and to be able to motivate the students towards reducing the current epidemic among the youths, MSACS is organizing training for Peer Educators of Red Ribbon Club on 9th & 10th October, 2019.

I therefore, request you to kindly detail the Peer Educators to attend the training as the future of the younger generation greatly depends on them.

Ground Water Resources Assessment Cell
PHE Dept, Mizoram

39

Report on site selection for borewell at Bawngkawn M/S-II, Aizawl

1. Topography:

The topography of the area consists of hillslope which is dissected by small stream. The hill slopes are associated with folding and faulting.

2. Drainage System:

The drainage system for a particular area is governed mainly by the natural drainage course and topography. The drainage patterns of the area are dendritic to sub-dendritic patterns some of which follows linear features indicating fractures or joints.

3. Geology of the area:

Lithology (Rock types): The area is underlain by Middle Bhuban formation of Surma Group of Tertiary age. Middle Bhuban formation is predominantly argillaceous characterized by shale and siltstone. However, sandstone beds are also found. Hence, lithologically, the area is characterized by alternating beds of shale and fine-coarse grained sandstone.

Geomorphology: The area falls within Less dissected Structural Hill or Gentle Hill Slope in terms of geomorphic classes.

Geological structures: It was observed that the rocks within the area are traversed by few geological features like faults, fractures, joints, etc. of varying magnitude and length.

4. Hydrogeological Units:

Hydrogeologically, the area consists of Semi-consolidated Unit. The Semi-consolidated formations developed secondary porosity due to tectonic disturbances.

In this type of terrain, the scope for ground water storage is limited mostly to secondary porosity like fractures, joints, etc.
